Welcome Messages

On behalf of the Committee of Dressage NSW, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to the riders, officials, volunteers and guests of the 2018 OTTO SPORT AUSTRALIA Sydney CDI3* as well as a huge thank-you to new sponsors

OTTO Sport Australia. As the most prestigious event on Australia's dressage calendar, the Sydney CDI3* has long been a world-renowned showcase for the best locally-based Dressage and Para-Equestrian horse and rider combinations that Australia and New Zealand has to offer and 2018 promises to continue this tradition. With the highest number of entries ever at the Sydney CDI and over 450 tests, as well as a strong field of eventing dressage and jumping, there is something for everyone.

To add to the excitement, the 2018 OTTO SPORT AUSTRALIA Sydney CDI is the second selection event for Australian based combination seeking to represent their country at the 2018 World Equestrian Games in North Carolina in September. Riders will compete on the amazing OTTO Sport Ebb and Flow arena, newly installed in the Indoor Arena. Fully funded by the NSW Office of Sport, and with support from ENSW and the SIEC team, we are incredibly grateful for the faith shown in our sport by the NSW Government and Minister Ayers. It ensures that SIEC will be the premier equestrian venue in NSW for many years to come.

Spectators will be treated to a feast of dressage over four days of competition, culminating in the crowd-pleasing excitement of the Grand Prix Freestyle on Saturday night. Due to public demand, spectators will once again be able to participate in the judging with the Spectator Judging App which has been a huge crowd pleaser at International events such Olympia in Britain and was such a hit at the 2017 Sydney CDI. We are extremely grateful to Daniel Göhlin and SAP who have made spectator judging a reality again at the 2018 Sydney CDI. In another first, riders in the GP Freestyle will be using the new FEI Degree of Difficulty system to pre-enter their floorplans for the GP Freestyle.

With an astounding 22 high-calibre combinations nominated for the Grand Prix, and some new faces stepping up to this level for their first year at GP, places in Saturday nights freestyle will be fiercely contested and only the best of the best will get the chance to sand-dance the night away.

And when you aren't watching the crème-de-la-crème of Australian dressage, make the most of the opportunity to spend up big in the packed trade village – renowned for the excellent quality and range of products, there is something for everyone this year.

Of course, the Otto Sport Australia Sydney CDI3* wouldn't be possible without the generosity and support of our wonderful and loyal sponsors – please make sure you thank them by actively supporting them, they are essential to our sport. The other essential ingredient to the success of the event is the dedication of the amazing and tireless volunteers and officials, many of whom show up every year and are familiar faces and old friends – a huge thank-you for the work you do.

Under the leadership of Event Director extraordinaire, Toni Venhaus, I know that the 2018 Sydney CDI3* will be a fabulous show. Best of luck to all the riders, owners and connection – especially of those combinations vying for WEG Selection. May your many months of blood, sweat and tears pay off in 2018. Let the competition begin!

Helen Lawson, President, Dressage NSW Inc.

A significant increase in the number of horses and riders entered this year make this the biggest field to date. In addition, we expect over 50 Eventing/Jumping riders with over 75 horses to ride in the Eventing Dressage and Jumping competitions on Saturday. The quality of the horses entered augurs well for three and a half days of tremendous competition.

The upgrade to the Indoor Arena and Arena 6 with the installation of Otto Sport Ebb & Flow surface is, of course, contributing to the increase in entries. After seven years at Horsecworld, we moved the event in 2002 - 17 years ago - to the Sydney International Equestrian Centre. The venue has seen a few changes since the Sydney Olympic Games but remains a unique facility that has allowed this event and others to grow and develop. The footing in the indoor arena has been a problem for many years and was not of an international standard.

SYDNEY CDI

Australia's Premier Dressage Event

We thank the SIEC team and Bruce Farrar and Equestrian NSW and others, who worked on the project submitted to the NSW Government. Thank you to Minister Ayers and the NSW Office of Sport for supporting the project: the dressage community is very excited and is looking forward to competing on the new surfaces.

OTTO SPORT AUSTRALIA is our Naming Sponsor this year. On behalf of the Organising Committee, Dressage NSW and the competitors, I would like to express our gratitude for your support of the event.

The event has added importance this year, being one of two "EA Nomination Qualifier Events" held in Australia for selection for the World Equestrian Games (WEG) held in Tryon in the USA in September 2018. We wish all aspirants well with their campaign to achieve WEG selection. The new surface in the Indoor should give them some extra spring to get a few more marks from the Judges!

The event is also a selection event for Para-Dressage.

We are pleased to welcome another stellar line-up of seven FEI Judges again this year including two FEI 5* (Olympic-level) Judges. FEI-accredited visiting Judges: Mr Stephen Clarke (Great Britain – 5*), Mr Hans-Christian Matthiesen (Denmark – 5*), Mr Trond Asmyr (Norway - 4*), Ms Sandra Hotz (USA - 4*), Mrs Brenda Minor (Canada - 4*), Mrs Alison King (Hong Kong – 4* & 5* Para-Equestrian) and Mrs Linda Warren-Davey (New Zealand - 3*). Sandra and Brenda are judging in Australia for the first time, and we hope they enjoy the experience.

The foreign judges are joined by their Australian colleagues Mary Seefried (FEI 5*), Susan Hoevenaars (FEI 5*), Maria Schwennesen (FEI 5*), Jane Ventura (FEI 4*) Ricky MacMillan (FEI 4*), Virginia Creed (FEI 3*), along with National-level Judges from New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria.

Hans-Christian Matthiesen and Suzy Hoevenaars are on the judging panel for dressage and Alison King will be judging Para- Equestrian at this year's World Equestrian Games.

The competition programme has expanded this year to include a CDI-J for Junior riders (aged 14 to 18 years), and more FEI level National competitions have been added. To accommodate the additional competitions, some will be held on Wednesday, a day earlier than usual.

Our Dressage future depends on having a supply of young horses going through the ranks, and the Sydney CDI has always attracted Australia's best talent. We welcome accomplished New Zealand rider Vanessa Way as the young horse guest rider.

The audience will once again have the chance to put themselves in the judges' seat, with the Spectator Judging app presented by SAP allowing spectators to score competitors. Spectator Judging was introduced at the Sydney CDI for the first time in the Australasian Region last year, and we expect more people will get involved this year.

Another new initiative this year and another first for Australia is the introduction of the Degree of Difficulty (DoD) Freestyle Judging System for the CDI 3* Grand Prix Freestyle on Saturday night.

We express our gratitude to our Sponsors for their continued support and loyalty to this event. In particular, we acknowledge the support of Equestrian NSW, for their significant financial contribution along with support from Equestrian Australia.

On behalf of the Sydney CDI Organising Committee and the many volunteers and supporters who provide their services for this event, we wish all the riders, owners, grooms and their wonderful horses the very best of luck. To all sponsors, exhibitors, media and spectators: we hope the event lives up to your expectations and you all enjoy the three days of competition.

And finally, a big thank-you to the members of the CDI Organising Committee for helping to put this event together and to the willing volunteers for doing such a great job. Thank you to the Management and Staff of the Sydney International Equestrian Centre, who go out of their way to support us with the running of this event.

“ Going to a lot of horse events, this is Land Cruiser country but I tell you what, they all stop and look when we roll in ”

The Horse Whisperers

We recently asked our RAM Truck owners to share a few stories about why they love their RAM, and it's different for everyone.

Jen and Neil aka the Horse Whisperers are passionate about their horses and competing in events all over the country. Their RAM gives them confidence and peace of mind that they'll all arrive comfortably with no stress. Jen loves the driving height, Neil loves it when you put your foot-down and they both love that everyone stops and looks when they roll-in.

Brenda Minor
(FEI 4* Judge from Canada)

At the age of 16, Brenda purchased her first horse for $150.00. For her 18th birthday, her then boyfriend (now husband), gave Brenda 10 dressage riding lessons hoping that she would get that dressage-y thing out of her system. It didn't happen. Brenda has been fortunate to have had dressage training from Canada's Olympic riders; ridden in clinics with the likes of Reiner Klimke, been a Medium Provincial Dressage Champion and worked her way up to competing in Grand Prix.

Brenda is an FEI 4* Dressage, FEI Young Horse, USEF "S" and EC "S" Dressage Judge and a Level II Coach. She has been on numerous CDI panels throughout North and South America, including Canada, United States, Costa Rica, Columbia, Guatemala, Mexico, as well as in England and has judged numerous North American Junior Young Rider Championships. In 2018, Brenda is judging the Caribbean Equestrian Association (CEA) Challenge which includes wonderful venues such as Barbados, Bermuda, Grand Cayman and Trinidad.

Brenda has been on Canada's Officials' Committee and was Committee Chair from 2005 – 2010 and currently provides education and promotion clinics to Canada's upcoming dressage judges. In 2017, she was the clinician for Mexico's national dressage judge promotion program.

When at home, she works for an international consulting organization.

Mary Seefried
(FEI 5* Judge from Australia)

Mary is currently one of about 30 Olympic level (5*) dressage judges in the world. In 2013, the FEI appointed her to the Judges Supervisory Panel (JSP) which ensures fairness in judging at major championships. Not only has she judged at every major championship of the FEI including WEG and OG, Mary has over 40 years of contribution to equestrian sports via numerous committees. Currently she is a member of the Australian Dressage Committee. Not only is she a Judge Educator in Australia but also is an FEI Dressage Judge course director as well as Young Horse judge. Mary will be TD the Asian Games in August 2018 and is also on the JSP for WEG at Tryon (USA) in September 2018.

Mary particularly likes passing on her experience in education programs for judges as well as assisting riders to improve their scores from the judge's point of view.

Alison King
(FEI 4* Judge from Hong Kong)

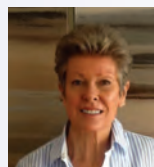

A long-term resident of Hong Kong, Alison has been an FEI Dressage Judge since 1994. She is a pharmacist by profession but spends most of her time working with ex-racehorses, rehabilitating them and retraining them for dressage. She has taken several of them to advanced level. In addition, Alison works as a freelance editor and is a qualified Bowen therapist.

Alison is also an FEI 5* Para-Equestrian Judge and a member of the Ground Jury for 2018 World Equestrian Games in Tryon USA.

Linda Warren-Davey
(FEI 3* Judge from New Zealand)

Linda has been involved with dressage for 25 years and has over 20 years judging experience, has trained and competed to FEI level and is a NZ Judge Mentor with a special interest in the development of the Young Dressage Horse in NZ. Linda is a member of the Dressage New Zealand Judges sub-committee, is an accredited Equestrian Australia Young Horse Judge, and is the most recent New Zealand judge to have attained FEI status at 3* level.

Susan Hoevenaars
(FEI 5* Judge from Australia)

A former FEI competitor, Susie lives near Melbourne. Together with husband Fred, they focus on the training and riding of young horses, and as part of their breeding program imported mares and stallions from Europe. As a 5* Judge, her commitments have taken her regularly to Europe and Asia.
