2 - 5 May 2018 Sydney International Equestrian Centre, Horsley Park

Media Accreditation

Introduction

The CDI Organising Committee recognises and values the role the Media plays in providing news and reporting of events.

We welcome Media to the event and invite Media to apply for accreditation to cover the event.

Accreditation is a means of identification and allows access to some restricted areas. It also makes it possible for officials to extend every courtesy to you.

Media representatives will receive Media Passes with free access to the event, (in principle two (2) per publication/type).

Organisers of the Sydney CDI are solely responsible for determining which organisations and individuals will receive accreditation.

- Freelance - This category includes freelance journalists and photographers. For freelance media accreditation, a 'Letter of Assignment' from a recognised media organisation would be appreciated.
- Photographers: The Sydney CDI appoints its own photographers and has special arrangements with them.
 - Photographers, who are taking photos for commercial reasons (not for recognised media organisations), will not be issued with accreditation. These photographers can purchase spectator tickets and take photographs from the stands.

How to get accredited

All accredited media personnel will be issued with accreditation passes, which must be worn and displayed at all times.

All media approved for accreditation at the Sydney CDI 3-Star will have access to the Media Room, located next to the Event Management Office in the Indoor Arena. More information is included in the Media Fact Sheet.

We would appreciate applications for Media Accreditation by 15 April 2018 so that we can send out passes before the event.

Please complete the Accreditation Form on page 2 and return to us.

Negotiations are underway and some restrictions may apply for filming/videoing.
